

Minnesota Association of Black Lawyers

30 YEARS OF MABL CROWNED IN LAW

November 22, 2025 | Royalston Square, Minneapolis

Join us for a milestone celebration honoring three decades of excellence, equity and leadership in Minnesota's legal community.

About MABL:

Three Decades of Impact

Advancing Equity & Excellence

For 30 years, MABL has championed diversity and inclusion in Minnesota's legal profession, breaking barriers and creating opportunities.

Scholarships & Mentoring

Our comprehensive programs provide financial support, LSAT preparation, and invaluable mentorship from established legal leaders.

Generational Leadership

MABL serves as the driving force for developing the next generation of Black legal professionals in Minnesota.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

The Honorable Eric H. Holder, Jr.

Eric Holder, former U.S. Attorney General (2009–2015), was the first African American to hold that office and the third longest-serving Attorney General in U.S. history. Recognized internationally as a leader on issues of justice, civil rights, and national security, he was named to Time Magazine's list of the 100 Most Influential People.

With more than 30 years of public service under Presidents Obama, Clinton, and Reagan, Mr. Holder now advises clients at Covington & Burling LLP on complex investigations, litigation, and regulatory enforcement matters.
